

MINISTRY OF SMALL SCALE INDUSTRIES

New Delhi-110011, the 3rd November 2005

RESOLUTION

No. 9/8/03-SSI(P)-II—The National Entrepreneurship Development Board was established as an apex body for entrepreneurship development in the country under Government Resolution No. 1(38)/83-EDP dated 8/10th September, 1983 for a period of two years with effect from the date of Notification. The Board was last re-constituted under Order No. 9(1)/98-SSI P-II dated 21st November 2002.

2. Government of India has since then adopted several policies, launched new schemes and programmes for entrepreneurship development and established a number of entrepreneurship development institutions in the country. In the changed circumstances, there is no functional or organizational necessity of continuing with the National Entrepreneurship Development Board. On careful consideration, it has, therefore, been decided that the National Entrepreneurship Development Board set up under the Resolution noted above and last reconstituted under Order No. 9(1)/98-SSI(P)—II dated 21st November 2002 be and is hereby abolished.

3. The Plan Schemes of the Ministry of Small Scale Industries, collectively titled "NEEDB Schemes" will however continue to be implemented, after renaming them suitably.
