

THE INSTITUTION OF ENGINEERS (INDIA)
NEYVELI SUB-CENTRE

Dated 22.2.1973

Ref. No. NSC/SC/73

The Secretary
The Institution of Engineers (India)
Calcutta.

Dear Sir,

Sub : Concession & Privileges of Student Members on Passing
Section A and B of the Institution Examination.

Ref : Your letter No. BCT/158 dated 16th December 1972.

The following information is furnished on the above subject :

The Neyveli Lignite Corporation Limited, which is the biggest employer of most of the Student members attached to Neyveli Sub-Centre, is giving the following concessions :

- (1) Two advance increments to the diploma holders in Engineering who pass AMIE (Sections A & B) Examination.
- (2) Those in the grade of Overseer/Junior Operator/Foreman Gr.II/Engineering Supervisor (including the period of training, if any) who acquire AMIE qualification will be considered for appointment as Junior Engineer/Junior Plant Manager/Junior Plant Engineer if they have more than 3 years of service. If they have 3 years and less of service, they will be considered for appointment as Probationer and given training for a period of six months and be appointed regularly as Junior Engineer/Junior Plant Manager/Junior Plant Engineer. training, if any) who acquire AMIE qualification will be considered for appointment as Junior Engineer/Junior Plant Manager/Junior Plant Engineer if they have more than 3 years of service. If they have 3 years and less of service, they will be considered for appointment as Probationer and given training for a period of six months and be appointed regularly as Junior Engineer/Junior Plant Manager/Junior Plant Engineer.
- (3) The Neyveli Lignite Corporation is granting Special Casual Leave to its employees who are members of the Institution of Engineers (India) to attend meetings, seminars etc. organised by the Institution of Engineers (India).

Thanking you,

Yours faithfully,
Sd/-